Kathmandu

Kathmandu is one of the most favorite place for tourists in Asia, in the decades of 60's & 70's it enjoyed the position of the final destination for Hippie trail. The name "Kathmandu" came from the centrally located ancient temple which still can be seen at Durbar Square, the temple of Kasthamandap (means the wooden shelter), It is the capital and the largest metropolitan city of Nepal, the other cities are Patan (Lalitpur) and Bhaktapur. Though it is an ancient city but in area it is even smaller than Singapore. Kathmandu is surrounded by four mountains, Shivapuri, Phulchowki, Nagarjun and Chandragiri, Kathmandu is located at an elevation of approximately 1,400 meters in the bowl shaped valley in central Nepal. The total population of Kathmandu is approx One Million people. Kathmandu is not only the capital but also the headquarters of the Central Region among the five development regions constituted by the 14 administrative zones of Nepal located at the center of the country. The central region has three zones, Bagmati, Narayani, and Janakpur.

The history of Kathmandu is more than 2000 years old. Variety of Religious and cultural festivities form a major part of the lives of people residing in Kathmandu colorful and attractive. Most of people here follow Hinduism and rest follow Buddhism. There are people of other religious beliefs as well, all this blend giving Kathmandu a cosmopolitan culture. Nepali is the most commonly spoken language in the city. English is understood by most of the residents in Kathmandu. It falls in the Bagmati Zone. Kathmandu, as the gateway to Nepal Tourism, is the nerve of the country's economy. With the most advanced infrastructure among urban areas in Nepal.
